Tailored Stocking

As a manufacturing company, your daily operations are as unique as your corporate culture and product line. One size definitely does not fit all.

You need a partner that is responsive and responsible to help manage vital details related to lead time, cost of ownership, and scheduling. You need Capital Electric's Tailored Stocking Program. We will work with you to:

- Reduce unit costs through volume pricing
- Reduce carrying and shipping costs
- Simplify purchase orders
- Consolidate your vendor base
- Maximize inventory turns
- Avoid costly down time in production

Using your specific requests and requirements, Capital Electric will customize inventory stocking that is exactly right for you. We offer:

Ship Ready

- Your products will be maintained at our safe, secure location to arrive where you want, when you want.

Blanket Orders

- Products may be scheduled to your specifications - including flexibility to hold or send product based on immediate need.

Having the right parts at the right time... Capital Electric's Tailored Stocking Program is the right fit. Call us. We want to show how we can be At Your Service.
